

Boards, Commissions and Committees Orientation Session

All orientation sessions for new Board and Commission (BC&C) members are conducted several times per year at the “Pinnacle Room” located at the City’s Human Resource offices, 7575 E. Main St., from 11 a.m. to 1:30p.m. Lunch will be provided. Also, existing members and/or citizen applicants considering a future appointment to a Board, Commission or Committee are invited to attend and participate these sessions.

Choose the earliest possible meeting (see listing below), RSVP and plan to attend. In addition to visiting with the Mayor of Scottsdale, and other new BC&C members, you will learn about:

- Your important role and responsibilities as a Scottsdale Board or Commission member.
- The City of Scottsdale’s organization, form of government, departments and City resources available to you.
- The legal issues and parameters you need to follow and/or be aware of during your tenure.
- And, tips, tools and techniques for becoming effective and successful members.

September 10, 2004

November 4, 2004
(Evening Session: 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.)

November 5, 2004

February 18, 2005 May 20, 2005

*Please RSVP to:
Velicia McMillan, 480-312-7252
Thank you! And, see you there.